MAY DAY HELD

How the Company Paid Its First New Directors Chesen-No More As-Two Dividends.

FACTIONS FIGHT FOR CONTROL

AND EACH SIDE GETS REPRESENTATION.

THERE was some lively "goings on" at the annual meeting of the shareholders of the May Day Mining company yesterday, and the powas kept boiling every minute from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until about 7:30 last night. Two combinations were out for the control of the board of directors, and owing to the fact that a heavy shareholder failed to get around mutil after the first bellot closed, the result is a little in doubt, though the opposition to the old management claims a victory, and when the organization occurs it may be found that the "inside" is on the "outside."

It all rests with James H. Larsen, who headed the opposition ticket, and who also held a place on the ticket, and who also held a place on the ticket, and who also held a place on the ticket, and who also held a place on the ticket, and who also held a place on the ticket, and who also held a place on the ticket, and who also held a place on the ticket, and who also held a place on the ticket, and who also held a place on the ticket, and who also held a place on the ticket, and who also held a place on the ticket showing the names supporting the old regime and the second the opposition, with those elected in each.

John A. Hunt (elected), James H. Larsen (elected), J. E. Darmer.

James H. Larsen (elected), Henry Cohen (elected), Ed Pearce (elected), John Campbell, R. A. Whittaker.

Before the election was held, a report, brought out by questions from the front ranks of the inquisitors, and taken from the books of the company, showed that during the year ending Ap il 1, 3,662 tons of ore had been marketed, and that the total receipts for that period (source not stated), was $76,829. At the beginning of the fiscal year there was $10,347 in the treasury, and at the close there was an overdraft of $205.72.

It was shown that on May 1, wien the first ticket show in the former is ground. Yesterday afternoon Superintendent R. A sample of the vein when the cross-cut was run disclosed values of ten ounces silver, 10 per cent lead and a small amount of gold. Sinking into the ore is now under way and a day or two is expected to show a marked improvement.

addition, Mr. Horne says, there is a big ledge of gold-bearing porphyry, all of twemy-five feet wide, that is expected to show good milling values, and unless his samples prove exceedingly disappointing he says Mr. Wilson can certainly be said to have stumbled on to a big bonanza.

On their way back Messrs. Wilson and Horne took a run up to Boise, which they describe as being a mighty lively town, with any number of people waiting for a chance to pull out for Thunder mountain.

FINE SPECIMENS FROM SHEBA

Antimonial Silver Disclosed in an Old

Tunnel Last Week. Some very rich specimens of antimonial silver and argentina that were taken out of the company's property is Humbolt county, Nevada, during the past week were being exhibited by C W. Greene, who returned from there yesterday morning. While the ore will likely run from 2,000 to 3,000 ounces to the ton, the streaks from which it cam are only two or three inches wide their presence indicating, however,

A tunnel about 120 feet above the main workings that was sent in sixty feet twenty-five years ago through a strong body of carbonate and black oxide of iron, with white quartz scattered all through it, has just been cleaned out and put in workable condition.

During four days last week it was advanced sixteen feet and six feet from the starting point a bunch of antimonial silver was uncovered in the floor of the tunnel, but sinking upon it has not yet commenced as the ore-bearing vein material appears to be rising toward the hanging wall, under which the tunnel is being driven to make connection, as soon as possible, with the cross-fissure, about 100 feet ahead.

The mine is in just that condition. Mr. Greene says, that any property will get into where prospecting has been stopped and the workings stripped of may be added to the condition of the con During four days last week it was

CENTURY ANNUAL MEETING. sessments Are Expected.

The stockholders of the Century Mining company met in annual session last evening, 110,859 of the 150,000 shares and at the close there was an overdraft of $205.72.

It was shown that on May 1, when the first dividend was declared, aggregating $8,000, there was $18,000 on hand, but against it there were "bills payable amounting to $10,000, while on June 1, when No. 2 divideral was ordered paid, twenty days large, there was only $806.03 in the treasury, while the distribution ordered called for $10,000.

In order that the other shareholders might get their money, the directors decided not to pay the amounts due themselves till the treasury was in better shape. The drawbacks on this account being as follows:
